

EPSU final workshop<sup>1</sup> on “Decentralisation, the changing role of the State and trade union responses”
12 – 13 June 2006, Hotel Bedford, Brussels

Practical information

The workshop venue and accommodation will be in the Hotel Bedford, 135 rue du Midi, 1000 Brussels

Travel

To reach the venue from the airport: take the train to the South station (gare du Midi - Zuidstation); from there you can either walk or take an underground “tram” (old metro), direction North station (gare du Nord - Noordstation) until “Anneessens station” (2nd stop after the South station); see maps attached.

EPSU will contribute to the travel of participants. Please bear in mind that our budget will enable us to refund participants’ travel on the basis of an average of EURO 500. You are therefore requested to book APEX or cheapest tickets.

In order to be reimbursed, tickets and boarding cards must be kept.
Taxis will not be reimbursed.

Accommodation

EPSU has made a block booking at the Hotel Bedford for the nights of 12 and 13 June 2006 (2 nights). The EPSU secretariat will make your reservation on the basis of the information you provide when completing your registration form. It will be possible to book an extra night. A maximum of 3 nights accommodation (including breakfast, but excluding personal expenses) will be paid directly by EPSU. Meals will be provided (lunch on 12 and 13 June and dinner on 12 June). In order to guarantee your accommodation, please respect the deadline for returning the registration form.

Registration

Please complete and return the attached registration form by 24 April at the very latest.

---

<sup>1</sup> This event receives funding from the European Union, European Social Fund Article 6 Innovative Measures