Unions in joint action over health sector negotiations

Belgium

Trade unions in the health sector are set to take joint strike action on 24 October unless there are positive developments in the sector negotiations that resume on 14 October. Some demonstrations have already taken place but the unions are concerned about the lack of progress on substantial questions such as funding, worsening conditions, excessive flexibility and overworks and staff shortages.

CNE (FR)
epsucob
2019 October EPSU Collective Bargaining News 19

- Printer-friendly version

Policies
Health
Strike