Non-teaching staff in education plan action on 29 November

Portugal

Non-teaching staff in the education sector, members of the public service unions in the CGTP confederation, will be taking strike action on 29 November. Their main demands include an end to the recruitment ratio that restricts the number of new recruits when workers leave the service, an overall increase in staffing, measures to reduce precarious employment and improvements to pay and career progression.

STAL (PT)
epsucob
2019 November EPSU Collective Bargaining News 22

- Printer-friendly version

Policies
Local government