

Unions strike over job cuts

 France

(July 2017) Four unions at the Veolia water company took strike action on 3 July in a protest at the company's announcement of a plan for job cuts. The unions have called for negotiation of a proper plan for training and retraining and have rejected compulsory redundancies with a call to defend local jobs. The unions involved include the CGT, FO, CFE-CGC, CFTC and UNSA.
