

Europe's unions demand Fair Europe for Workers - EPSU joins the demo

(26 April 2019) Thousands of unionists joined a European demonstration in Brussels. We ask a Fair Europe for Workers. We want that the new European Parliament (elected end of May) and the new European Commission take workers' concerns center stage. An EPSU delegation joined calling for quality public services and an end to austerity. Unionists from the Belgian affiliates in the public services and several representatives of affiliates from other countries and as far away as Roumania and of USF, the union representing workers in the European institutions marched with 8000 others passing the European Parliament, the Council and the buildings of the European Commission.
