

Local government unions demonstrate over jobs

 Belgium

The three union federations in local government in the Wallonia region organised a demonstration on 19 November in protest at the regional government's failure to implement the 2005-2006 collective agreement. The unions are calling for the government to honour its promises on protecting workers' purchasing power, recruitment and pensions and they are ready for a long campaign of protest if the government doesn't respond.
