

Union threatens strike over reorganisation of cleaning

 Switzerland

The VPOD/SSP public service union says that its members in the federal parliament cleaning service will take strike action in June if a plan to decentralise the service to department level takes place. The union argues that the federal building and logistics department has been carrying out a three-year cost cutting regime and that decentralisation of cleaning will be a first step towards outsourcing of the service that employs 400 workers.
