

Confederation calls 24-hour strike for 6 April

Greece

The ADEDY civil service trade union confederation has called a national strike on 6 April over pay, jobs and public sector funding. It argues that with inflation at a 25-year high of 7% public sector salaries need to be increased immediately. There has been no increase since 2009 when salaries for many public sector workers were cut by 40%. ADEDY is also calling for reinstatement of 13th and 14th month salary payments and an increase in, and extension to the special allowance for arduous and dangerous work. The confederation's other demands include urgent action to recruit permanent staff to tackle serious staff shortages, to increase funding for public services and prevent privatisation.
