

Outsourcing means fewer hours or two jobs!

Denmark

The FOA public services union reveals that cleaners who have seen their work outsourced faced the choice of working fewer hours or taking up a second job to make up their pay. This means for some starting the first job at six in the morning and not finishing the second job until seven in the evening. The union gives the specific example of nursing home cleaners now employed by the ISS multinational. The cleaning was outsourced by Velje municipality last year and the workers were on the same pay and conditions until the collective agreement expired on 1 April.
