

Health staff in private sector mobilise for better pay

 France

The health federation - CGT de la Santé et de l'Action Sociale - has been mobilising its members to support negotiations with the FDH federation of private hospitals. With two days of action on 25 June and 10 July and other mobilisations in between the union has been calling for better pay and conditions and recognition of qualifications for workers in clinics and private homes for the elderly run by the EHPAD organisation.
