

Federations criticise draft mobility decree for provinces

 Italy

The main public service federations - Fp-Cgil Cisl-Fp and Uil-Fpl - have issued a joint response to the government plans for rules on worker mobility across provincial government. The unions argue that the proposals threaten salary supplements and take no account either of workers' skills and professionalism. The federations say that they had put forward proposals that would have involved assessing functions and mapping skills across the sector but the government ignored them and come up with more cumbersome proposals instead. The unions will be campaigning for Parliament to amend the proposals.
