

Tough bargaining in local government

 Sweden

Municipal union Kommunal reports that it is facing very tough negotiations with the SKL local government employers' organisation. Union officials are shocked at the employers' approach with calls for no pay increases in an agreement to run indefinitely with no minimum wages and extended hours. Kommunal is putting forward a number of demands including a 2.8% pay increase with an extra SEK 400 (EUR 42.50) for nurses.
