Competitiveness pact negotiations get underway

Finland

Trade unions are in the midst of challenging sector negotiations on measures agreed at cross-sector level. For the public sector this will involve a 24-hour increase to annual working time without a commensurate pay increase and a 30% cut in holiday pay for the next three years. If these measures are agreed then the government should withdraw its proposals for public sector cuts.

Read more at > JHL (EN)

epsucob

2016 April epsucob@NEWS 05

Printer-friendly version