

Ambulance workers ballot for strike action

 Ireland

Ambulance workers, members of the SIPTU trade union, are being balloted for strike action in protest at the failure of the government to produce a key report on the sector. It is over two years since the government said it would publish a capacity review that the union sees as essential for a proper debate about what is needed to ensure a fully funded and operational service.

Read more at > SIPTU

epsucob

2016 April epsucob@NEWS 05

- Printer-friendly version