

Negotiations underway at Asklepios

 Germany

The ver.di services union is in the middle of negotiations with the Asklepios clinic company, the largest private clinic operation in Germany, to establish a framework collective agreement. The agreement will cover issues such as working time, rules on unsocial hours and weekend and night work, standby and on-call arrangements and annual leave. The next stage of the negotiations will take place on 19 and 20 November.
