

Protest over government's failure to negotiate

 Portugal

EPSU has written a letter of protest to the Portuguese government for its failure to negotiate properly over proposed changes to workers' rights and pay and conditions in public administration. As part of its long-running campaign against government policies the FNFSP public sector trade union federation has organised a demonstration on 18 October taking advantage of the presence in Lisbon of government leaders from the rest of the European Union.

Read more at > EPSU \(EN\)

And at > FNSFP \(PT\)

epsucob

17-2007 epsucob@NEWS 2 October 2007

- Printer-friendly version