

EPSU received a delegation of the youth committee of Norwegian union NTL

The young trade unionists engaged in discussions with the EPSU General Secretary on the priorities of work in EPSU and the broader trade union movement. Precarious work, unemployment and recruiting young workers in the unions are common themes. They also discussed the work in the central government sector, social dialogue and on tax justice. Other meetings took place with the Norwegian confederation, the ETUC Youth Committee and the EFTA office. The visit took place 20 January 2017, Brussels.
