ETUC final statement on the next steps after the UK referendum

European trade unions fight for workers' rights in aftermath brexit.

Leaders of European Trade unions in the ETUC met UK unionists to discuss the consequences of BREXIT. The extraordinary committee adopted a statement that calls for an end to austerity. We ask for more investment in public services. Inequality, wage dumping and attacks on workers' rights must be stopped.

Please find below the full statement of ETUC

Policies
Economic Policy
Migration
Tax justice
Sectors
National and European Administration
Networks
Economic Policy