

Unions mobilise across the country

 France

The CGT, FO, FSU and Solidaires trade union organisations mobilised an estimated 300000 demonstrators on 9 April calling for higher salaries and more jobs as well as defence of public services in a major anti-austerity action. The main protest was in Paris with over 120000 marchers but there were also demonstrations in over 80 towns and cities across the country.
