

Firefighters' unions plan strike over breakdown in social dialogue

 France

Following a 10,000-strong demonstration last November, four firefighters' unions are continuing to coordinate action against proposals to reorganise the fire service. The unions argue that there has been no real social dialogue over the changes and they have announced 24-hour strike action and are mobilising for another national demonstration on 15 February.

Read more at > CGT Services Publics \(FR\)

And at > CFDT Interco \(FR\)

epsucob

2012 February epsucob@NEWS 03

- Printer-friendly version