

March shows continuing support for waste workers

 Ireland

Workers employed by the Greyhound waste company have been locked out for three months following their protests over an attempt to cut pay by up to 35%. They are continuing their protests and were supported other trade unions in a march through Dublin city centre on 2 September.

Read more at > SIPTU

epsucob

2014 September epsucob@NEWS 15

- Printer-friendly version