

Unions protest against labour code changes

 Lithuania

Trade unions from all sectors came together on 10 September to protest against government plans to change the labour code. Under the banner "No to slavery at work", trade unions made clear their opposition to radical reforms that will undermine many basic employment and trade union rights. If implemented the changes will mean more precarious working conditions, pressure to work longer hours and worsening provision for working parents. EPSU sent a letter of protest to the Lithuanian government.
