

University collective agreement signed

 Austria

The GÖD public service union has signed the new collective agreement that will cover all university employees from 1 October this year. The agreement means that university workers will no longer be covered by the main public sector agreement and that university works councils will be able to negotiate certain changes to terms and conditions. The GÖD believes that the agreement establishes a decent minimum wage and provides job security and good career structure as well as career progression based on merit.
