Nurses and midwives strike over pay

Poland

Nurses and midwives at the specialized hospital in Radom in central Poland are on strike in support of their claim for a substantial pay increase. The hospital has said it cannot afford the pay increase as it is already in deficit. The strike began on 5 August at the hospital that is the biggest in the region.
Read more at > Polish Radio news (EN)
And more at > Polish Radio news (EN)
Thanks for this story to > Labourstart

epsucob
16 epsucob@NEWS August 2009

- Printer-friendly version