

Union challenges government in courts over redundancy scheme

 U.K.

The PCS civil service union has been taking industrial action over government changes to the civil service redundancy compensation scheme. However, it is also pursuing a case in the courts, arguing that the government had no right to make unilateral changes to the scheme as any amendments had to be negotiated and agreed with the trade unions.

Read more at > PCS \(EN\)

epsucob

2010 April epsucob@NEWS 09

- Printer-friendly version