

Union confederation calls for support for public service workers

 Czech Republic

Public sector workers are facing an across the board cut of 10% in salaries as well as the prospect of a new pay structure that could result in cuts of up to 40% for some workers. The CMKOS trade union confederation organised a national demonstration on 21 September in protest at planned changes to the labour code and attacks on public sector workers. EPSU has sent a letter of protest to the Czech government over its proposals on public sector pay. The health sector union says it will take strike action on 15 October if the government pushes ahead with its plans.
