

National agreement continues to deliver

 Ireland

Public services union IMPACT reports that the national agreement on public service reform (the Croke Park agreement) continues to deliver savings and has been praised by the International Monetary Fund. Trade unions negotiated the agreement in order to prevent further cuts in pay and avoid compulsory redundancies. It provides a framework for negotiating efficiency savings and has delivered targets set so far.

Read more at > IMPACT

epsucob

2012 July epsucob@NEWS 13

- Printer-friendly version