

Federation calls for negotiations over restructuring

 Spain

The FSP-UGT public service federation is calling on the government to agree to a proper process of collective bargaining over a planned major restructuring of local and regional government. The union warns that 300,000 jobs are at risk and that there needs to be negotiations not just to protect workers but also the services they provide. The federation is concerned that the government is pushing through the measures simply to save money irrespective of the impact on services.
