

Union campaigns against increased hours

 Portugal

On 29 July the STAL local government union joined with other public sector unions in the Common Front to demonstrate against government policy to increase working time and weaken unfair dismissal rules. The unions sees the 35-hour week, seven-hour day and 25 days' annual leave as fundamental rights for workers that were fought for in the past and now need to be strongly defended.

Read more at > STAL \(PT\)

And more at > STAL \(PT\)

epsucob

2013 August epsucob@NEWS 12

- Printer-friendly version