

EPSU and PSI support affiliate denied right to strike

 Türkiye

EPSU and PSI have both sent letters to the Minister of Works and Higher Board of Arbitration criticising the way that the authorities dealt with a dispute involving the Genel-Is trade union and two municipal companies. Following a deadlock in negotiations the union planned strike action but the two companies unilaterally signed a new agreement and the Higher Board of Arbitration deemed that this had become valid before the union's planned strike action and so denying Genel-Is its legal right to strike.
