

Public service strike on 22 April

 Belgium

The CGSP/ACOD public services federation has called for a national strike on 22 April. The union will be protesting against government changes to pensions, the statutes covering public sector workers and the failure to recruit new workers. In the meantime the common front of the three confederations is organising a number of mobilisations around the country in protest at government policies on public finances and public services.
