

Federation pickets ministries on world health day

 Romania

The Sanitas health workers' federation organised a picket of three ministries (health, finance and labour) on 7 April, world health day, in order to raise a number of concerns about pay, training and funding of health services. EPSU sent a letter to the three ministers expressing support for the Sanitas action. The union has managed to secure a commitment to deal with a range of issues and there will be talks on public sector pay in general as well as how to improve pay in the health service in particular.
