

Unions want action on precarious employment

 France

Public service unions have written jointly to the public services minister, Christian Jacob, to demand government action to reduce precarious employment in the public services. The unions want negotiations to start immediately to resolve the situation in the public sector where, according to a recent study the use of short-term contracts is more widespread than in the private sector.

Read more at > CGT

epsucob

09 epsucob@NEWS 1 May 2006

- Printer-friendly version