

Union backs call for living wage policy in Dublin

 Ireland

The SIPTU general union has backed a resolution from the Labour Party on Dublin Council calling for a living wage policy. This would be applied by the council not just to its own employees but would also cover contractors working for the council. SIPTU wants to see Dublin Council set a leading example as a council that adopts public procurement policies which take account of decent employment standards rather than just awarding contracts to the lowest bidder.
