Successful PSI/EPSU event for trade union journalists in Greece

(14 November 2013) Last week a dozen of trade union journalists and communicators from PSI and EPSU affiliates gathered in Athens to held the 3rd Communicators Action Network together with the meeting of the EPSU's Trade Union Journalist Network.

Representatives from the United Kingdom, United States, Ghana, Italy, Cyprus, Lithuania, Greece and representatives from both PSI and EPSU gathered to cover stories about trade union struggles, the General Strike, the occupation of ERT by the police and much more. The idea is for all of EPSU and PSI affiliates to use the material for training and education material as well as in the propaganda.

You can read all about it here

- Log in to post comments

- Printer-friendly version

Networks
Journalists