

EPSU condemns Albanian police brutality against trade unions

(03 August 2007) EPSU and PSI have condemned the police break-in in the headquarters of the KSSH Confederation. The police broke in, destroyed property and kept union officials and staff out of the building. The police seeks to make the work of the trade union difficult. The trade union has protested against shortage of water and electricity and bad government management. EPSU has also reported the incident to various European institutions.
