

Unions continue campaign against Labour Code

 Lithuania

(September 2016) Trade unions are mobilising on 10 September in their continuing campaign against the proposed new Labour Code. The President blocked the code over the summer and EPSU has sent a message of protest to the Lithuanian government arguing that the Code will do nothing for the economy and only create more precarious working conditions, particularly for young workers. Read more at LPPFS \(LT\).

epsucob

2016 September epsucob@NEWS 11

- Printer-friendly version

Policies

Collective Bargaining

Solidarity

Union Rights