ETUC highlights campaign against gender pay gap

Europe

To coincide with International Women's Day, the ETUC has published a survey that shows that women make up an increasing proportion of trade union membership but have yet to secure a proportionate share of leadership positions. The ETUC is also stressing the pay equality element of its new pay campaign. The first main event in the campaign is the demonstration in Ljubljana on 5 April.
Read more at > ETUC (EN)
And in French at > ETUC

epsucob
004 epsucob@NEWS March 2008

- Printer-friendly version