

Union ballots for industrial action over recruitment freeze

 Ireland

The public service union IMPACT is organising a ballot of its health service membership over industrial action in protest at the Health Service Executive's (HSE) continuing recruitment freeze. The union criticised the HSE for introducing the policy and won a court ruling that the employers had failed to consult properly over the freeze. IMPACT as warned of the effects on services as the recruitment freeze bites.

Read more at > IMPACT \(EN\)

epsucob

007 epsucob@NEWS April 2008

- Printer-friendly version