

Union delivers protest letter to constitutional court

 Portugal

On 20 July a group of leading members of the STAL public services union delivered an open letter to the constitutional court to protest about its recent judgement on cuts to the holiday pay and Christmas bonuses of workers in public administration. The union is angry that the court ruled that the cuts were unconstitutional but has effectively allowed them to be implemented in 2012. [Read more at > STAL (PT)->http://www.stal.pt/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=937&Itemid=1] epsucob

2012 July epsucob@NEWS 13

- Printer-friendly version