

Unions calls for statutory staffing levels in eldercare

 Netherlands

The FNV trade union has submitted proposals to the government to set staffing levels in eldercare. The union wants to see two workers for every eight residents and emphasises that there should be a balance of different skill levels. FNV argues that this is a crucial measure that will help improve recruitment and retention in the sector by ensuring that workers are not overworked and have enough time to spend with clients.

FNV \(NL\)

epsucob

2017 February epsucob@NEWS 03

- Printer-friendly version

Policies

Social Services

Staffing levels