

Extension of collective agreement for emergency services

 Austria

The collective agreement covering the Red Cross has been extended to cover all emergency service and ambulance workers. The decision has been welcomed by the GPA-DJP and VIDA trade unions that have been campaigning for over two years against wage dumping the sector. The next target for the unions is to negotiate a single pay structure for whole of the country as the Red Cross agreement currently has different pay levels for different regions.

Read more at > VIDA \(DE\)

epsucob

2010 July epsucob@NEWS 13

- Printer-friendly version