Friday 22 February, 9h00 till 13h00, EPSU offices, rue Joseph II, 40 - 1000 Brussels

The objective will be to provide an update on the EPSU no to tax fraud campaign “the missing € 1 Trillion: we want it back” and discuss next steps including:

- EPSU- commissioned LRD report on cuts in tax administrations – soon available
- Actions by affiliates leading up to the European tax justice week 17-23 June 2013
- No to tax fraud Website
- European Commission’s action plan against tax fraud (6.12.12) pls see in EN, FR and DE here
- Opinion of the European Parliament and of the European Economic and Social Committee
- Council
- EPSU comments
- Date of next meeting

Should you wish to attend, if you want to benefit from the ETUI refund of your travel and accommodation expenses you will have to also attend the EPSU economist working group on 20

and 21 February. Please note that there is a registration fee - see page 2 of the invitation. No further financial assistance is available. Although the deadline for registration to the 20-21 February event is passed, there are still quite a few places available, we recommend however that you register quickly.

Please let Diane Gassner (dgassner@epsu.org) know by return email if you are interested and available.
