

Legislation could undermine collective bargaining in local government

 Croatia

EPSU has written to the Croatian government expressing its concern about new legislation on determining pay in local government. EPSU's local government affiliate, the Trade Union of State and Local Government Employees of Croatia, argues that the new law will undermine its right to negotiate pay for its members and that the government has failed to consult properly over the legislation.

epsucob

16 epsucob@NEWS August 2009

- Printer-friendly version