

Church continues to block moves to collective bargaining

 Germany

Service ver.di has again criticised the Evangelical Church for trying to prevent the union negotiating a collective agreement to cover the church's 130,000 workers who deliver a range of health and social services. The church wants a so-called Employment Commission to regulate pay and conditions and was putting pressure on worker representatives to support this option by saying that collective bargaining was not an option.
