Wage developments

Slovak Republic

According to the EIRO industrial relations observatory the latest figures for wage growth in Slovakia show real wages increasing at their fastest rate for five years. In the first of 2005 wages were rising at 8.2% and real wages at 5.6%. However, figures broken down by industry suggest that real wages fell in the electricity, gas and water sector by 7.3%.
Read more at > EIRO

epsucob
epsucob@NEWS 12 November 2005

- Printer-friendly version