

New pay system in public sector

 Slovenia

The EIRO industrial relations observatory reports that a July 2005 law introduces collective agreements into the Slovenian public sector and will require the government to negotiate an annual agreement on pay. However, experts and unions are concerned about the compulsory element included in the legislation and say that it could contravene the European Social Charter and International Labour Organisation Convention 158.

Read more at > EIROI

epsucob

epsucob@NEWS 12 November 2005

- Printer-friendly version