

Survey shows gas workers opposed to privatisation

 France

A survey of employees of Gaz de France by the CGT and FO union federations revealed that 94% are against privatisation. The private utility Suez is bidding to takeover the company. The survey was carried out in response to claims by the government and GdF itself that employees were in favour of the sale of the company. The unions are now mobilising for a day of action - including demonstrations and strikes - on 12 September.
