

Reporting on CSR in the electricity sector - the utility sector supplement

(18 January 2012) Electricity companies that wish to achieve a positive evaluation regarding their Corporate Social Responsibility Policies will have to report in accordance with the so-called Electricity Utility Sector Supplement of the Global Reporting Initiative. The attached reference sheet provides an overview of the issues on which the companies need to report.

Other articles on CSR work you can find at:

- Related CSR subjects (conference and report) and a 2009 report
- CSR and EWCs
- For the joint statement with the Electricity employers 2009
- European Works Councils and Corporate Social Responsibility in the European Energy Sector/ EPSU-SOMO report
 - EUSS quick reference
 - Log in to post comments
 - Printer-friendly version

Policies

Corporate Social Responsibility

Electricity

Social Dialogue

Sectors

Utilities