Taking back control

Governments must ensure that they act in the best interest of their communities by providing quality public services. The provision of essential services should be their highest priority. Privatisation should only be considered if it has been demonstrated to be in the best interest of communities and the best use of taxpayer funding.

Mr. Mura Nzezeni, President, Republic of KwaZulu-Natal

I am writing to raise concerns over the situation with the criminal prosecution of leaders of the Confederation of Independent Trade Unions (CITU) of South Africa. The leader of the Confederation of Independent Trade Unions (CITU) of South Africa, Lancevo Khekoza, has been sentenced to four years of imprisonment for sedition.

Earlier, Vice-Chairman of the KNPRK Mungo Mkhathwa
